Jeremiah and Jesus were both fully aware of the chaos and stress inherent in gathering sheep! In our readings today, Jeremiah underlines how a good shepherd brings his flock together in their fold and attends to their needs, not only for safety, but so that they might be fruitful and multiply. Jesus, on the other hand, compares the crowds following him to sheep looking for a shepherd. Turning away from a retreat with his disciples, he reaches out with his disciples; he reaches out with compassion to these people who incessantly look to him for attention. How truly our Lord Jesus Christ fulfills the role of Good Shepherd for us as Church. Other 'shepherds' have little power to truly care for us and bring us together into the peace of our fold, the embrace of God. It is Christ Jesus, Saint Paul says in his letter to the Ephesians, who is our peace, who put hostility to death through the cross, both as sacrificial lamb and as shepherd, to reconcile us as one body to God. As we approach Mass today, are we presently milling around like shepherd-less sheep- as Church, as community, as family or as individuals? Let us each be enfolded by the compassion of the Good Shepherd, as he calls us to his table to partake of the unity, reconciliation and fruitfulness of his holy Eucharist.

St. Christopher was a martyr during the 3rd century and is considered since the patron saint of all drivers, travelers, as well as a patron saint of all those in danger. It is suggested to remember St. Christopher and pray to him during the summer holidays, asking him for this patronage and for a safe return home.

August - Month of Alcohol Abstinence August is traditionally declared by the Church in Poland as the month of alcohol abstinence. The Church invites everyone to abstain from alcoholic beverages during the month of August.

THE LIBERATION CRUSADE is a voluntary commitment to abstain from alcoholic beverages. The term "crusade" indicates a spiritual battle with evil, where prayer is fundamental. Members of the Crusade are committed not only to abstain from drinking, but also to help others who struggle with alcohol addiction. Everyone is invited - especially in the month of August - to join the Crusade and abstain from consuming alcoholic beverages.

A special book will be placed at the altar of the relics, where everyone is welcomed to write their name.
