

The Trinity is a foundational Christian doctrine. It is also difficult to understand. For some it is a math puzzle: how can there be three within one? On the other hand, although most people can correctly state that there are three persons in one God, when they explain what that means, it sometimes sounds like three gods. We are better at saying what the Trinity is not than what it is. It is easier to recognize a challenge to the belief in one God or that there are three within that one God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Each is distinct from the other, but each is also the same one God. The Bible does not state that there are three persons in one God. But the three persons of the Trinity are frequently found together. Today's Gospel, and excerpt from Jesus' Last Supper discourse, is one such place. The Spirit will come to communicate Jesus' message, not a new one. And since what Jesus has, the Father also has, the Spirit will continue the revelation of the one God. When we worship together, rather than define things, we celebrate them. Thus, we affirm our belief in the Trinity each Sunday in the Creed, as well as when we invoke the Father, Son and Holy Spirit throughout the liturgy.

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Trinity Sunday, also known as Holy Trinity Sunday, is celebrated a week after Pentecost Sunday in honor of the most fundamental of Christian beliefs—belief in the Holy Trinity. We can never fully understand the mystery of the Trinity, but we can sum it up in the following formula:
God is three Persons in one Nature. The three Persons of God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—are all equally God, and They cannot be divided.
In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
