

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

All Saints' Day All Souls' Day

The church prays for all the faithful departed, especially in November, when we join together to pray for those who repent in Purgatory. They need the prayers of the living to shorten the period of penance and unite with God in heaven. The souls of the dead can no longer do anything about their cause, and therefore need the prayers of the living. One of the forms of help we can offer them is through wypominki – where we list the names of our departed family and friends on memorial envelopes and the Church community prays for them. Additionally, in the month of November, 30 Masses are celebrated for the repose of their souls. Memorial envelopes can be found at each entrance to the church. They can be deposited into a special box found on the steps of the sanctuary.

Today's readings offer valuable lessons concerning trust and humility, both of which serve as important criteria for Christians in developing healthy prayer practices and a deeper relationship with God.

The first reading from the book of Sirach says God hears and responds to our prayers lovingly. God rewards our loyalty to him regardless of our journey or identity in life. When we come to the Lord simply and hand our needs and struggles over to him with complete confidence, we know God will act and answer our prayers.

Yet, as Saint Luke reminds us in his account of Jesus' parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector, we must always be grateful for God's gifts, appreciating our blessings but never celebrating them boastfully or excessively. God, in the end, will honour our choice to live a humble life. As evidenced by the tax collector, it is through acknowledging our flaws and asking God for mercy that we experience healing and encouragement.

So as we seek to grow closer to God in our daily living, may we strive to practice greater trust in his way and humble ourselves before him. In displaying boundless faith in God while living meekly, we open ourselves more fully to being raised in God's unconditional love.

THEOLOGY OF THE BODY FOR PRE-TEENS Our youth is frequently challenged with questions regarding their identity, and even more so, their sexual identity. Unfortunately, even school programs about sexuality in grades 6 through 8, can contribute to this confusion. THERE IS HELP!! Revolutionary teachings of Saint JP II help our children to better understand God's plan for their life and the true meaning and purpose of sexuality. A DVD-based study for pre-teens will be held starting Wednesday Oct 30 through Dec 18 from 7:00 p.m. to 8 p.m. in St. Maximilian Kolbe room (downstairs new catechetical center). An info session for parents will be held on Wed. Oct 23, at 6:30 pm. Contact: kolbetobstudygroup@gmail.com

ALL SAINTS DANCE will take place this Thursday, Oct. 31st from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the parish hall. Fr. Paweł Pilarczyk, who is responsible for organizing and leading the dance, wishes to promote festivities based on Christian values and help the children celebrate All Saints Day – a day full of happiness and joy. For this reason, we ask that children dress up as POSITIVE CHARACTERS, such as saints, animals, community workers, etc. All children will receive lots of candy, and prizes will be awarded for outstanding costumes.

Thank you to those who have already contributed treats for the children. If any other businesses or private individuals wish to sponsor nut-free sweets for this occasion, we are still accepting donations at the parish office. All sponsors will be listed in the November bulletin.
