

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Through his exchange with the Sadducees, Jesus gives a glimpse into the life of the resurrection. What can we know about it? What should we expect? How should we prepare? What will happen to our relationships through the resurrection?

In his answer, Jesus escapes the boundaries of anything his audience had ever heard. He describes the resurrection as a call to a bigger life. To live in God is more than a mortal existence; it is an active participation in God's salvation for the world. This resurrection, understood as life in God, is sustained by a renewed relationship to God, ourselves and others.

That is why our hope is in the God who renews the world. A hope not just in something that may not be or in something that has long since passed, but a hope rooted in a relationship that continues to transform us every day.

When we view the past, present and future in light of the resurrection, we are in solidarity with those who have gone before, those who journey with us now and those who are yet to come. It is the "bigger picture" and a shared mission with the saints to help transform the world by the love of God that transforms our own hearts. Even now, in God "we live and move and have our being." PRAYING FOR OUR DEPARTED

November is a time of prayer for our dearly departed. We recall those who have left to be in God's Kingdom: our parents, siblings, relatives, friends, clergy, neighbors and all those whom we encountered in our lives and to whom we owe a debt of gratitude. In our prayers we offer them up to God's Mercy. In addition to our private prayers and Mass intentions, the Church has a tradition of Remembrance Intentions (wypominki) dating back to 993.

St. John Paul II teaches us that "It is important and proper to pray for the dead because, even if they died in grace and in friendship with God, perhaps they still have need of further purification to enter into the joy of heaven."

One of the forms of help we can offer them is through wypominki – where we list the names of our departed family and friends on special remembrance envelopes and the Church community prays for them. Oblate Fathers residing at the Provincial House in Toronto celebrate 30 Masses in November in the intention of all those listed on remembrance envelopes.

Remembrance envelopes can be found at each entrance to the church. They can be deposited into a special box found on the steps of the sanctuary.

INDEPENDENCE DAY REMEMBRANCE DAY

Remembrance Day is a statutory holiday dedicated to the memory of Canadian soldiers who died in the cause of freedom. Canadians pause today in silence to remember those who died in war and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world. This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community, and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world.

National Independence Day is a national holiday in Poland celebrated every year since 1937 on November 11th to commemorate the anniversary of Poland's assumption of independent statehood in 1918 after 123 years of partition by Russia, Prussia and Austria.

Today, the Canadian Polish Congress in Mississauga invites all to take part in the commemorations of the 101st anniversary of regaining Poland's Independence and Remembrance Day. We will commence with the Holy Mass at 11 o'clock at St. Maximilian Kolbe Church. Afterwards a short ceremony will take place at the Polish Patriots' Monument in front of the John Paul II Polish Cultural Center. We would like to extend a warm welcome to everyone.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

WELCOME!

This week we welcome to our parish Fr. Urban Pudelko OFM who looks after Polish pilgrims in Medjugorje. Pope Francis has authorized pilgrimages to Medjugorje, which can now be officially organized by dioceses and parishes. Next week, Fr. Pudelko will preach a homily at each Sunday Mass.

PERPETUAL ADORATION CHAPEL

is a unique place where one can meet Jesus whenever the heart desires it, day and night. At our parish, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament has been taking place continuously for the past 24 years.

Come, see for yourself, and be open to His presence. God has something to tell you, and only you, but for this to happen, you must remain in His presence. Come, see and believe that Jesus Christ is alive in the form of a small piece of white bread. He's the One who was born centuries ago, who died on the cross, and who rose from the dead. He is here and He is still waiting for you. When you enter the chapel and bend your knees before the Blessed Sacrament, you will experience profound peace. Turn your eyes to the Blessed Sacrament. It is Jesus Christ. The One who lived centuries ago is alive here, too. He still preaches the Gospel, heals, forgives, blesses, and pours His grace upon us.

The Chapel of Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is open 24 hours a day. Today we want to encourage the faithful to join the group of individuals who Adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Come, He is waiting for you. If you are interested in signing up for an hour of Adoration, please contact Mr. and Mrs. Chmura at (905) 949-1237.

MOVIE SCREENING Polish Canadian Congress – Mississauga Branch along with Consulate General of the Republic of Poland in Toronto invite you to the screening of the movie Niepospolita which will take place on Monday, November 11th at 7:30 p.m. at the John Paul II Polish Cultural Centre. Free entrance. The movie is in Polish and is not subtitled.

THANKS AGAIN FOR THE SWEETS!

We continue to extend our gratitude to the following individuals and businesses who donated treats for the All Saints' Ball last week. With your generous gift of sugary sweets, all children were able to keep their energy up and dance the night away.

Their repertoire includes the most beautiful Christmas songs and carols. "Śląsk" – "Silesia" will perform at our parish on Saturday, December 14th at 2 p.m. Tickets at $40 are available today in the parish hall and at the parish office during regular office hours.

THEOLOGY OF THE BODY FOR PRE-TEENS

Every day our children are bombarded with information that undermines their human and Christian identity, in particular sexual identity. The grade 6-8 curriculum often doesn't help to find meaning in the vastness of contradictory information, but deepens the feeling of being lost and overwhelmed. Theology of the Body for pre-teens runs until December 18 and takes place on Wednesdays from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. in St. Maximilian Room of the new catechetical center. SHEPHERDS' TRUST

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. They have been instruments in living out a "faith in action." Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust supports our priests to help them live their retirement years with dignity.

The Shepherds' Trust collection will take place in all parishes in the Archdiocese during the weekend of November 16-17. Envelopes will be distributed the weekend of November 9/10.

This trust fund is a tangible way to care for those who cared for us and to give thanks for the blessings we have received through them. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
