

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Happy Birthday Fr. Jacek! May God give you the courage, knowledge, and wisdom to continue to propagate His Word to mankind.

Installation of the Parish Pastor

Fr. Jacek Nosowicz will be officially installed as pastor of our parish on Saturday, October 24th during the 5 p.m. Mass. Bishop John Boissoneau will preside over the ceremony.

The Mission Sunday collection is always taken on the next to last Sunday during the month of October. That day is celebrated in all the local Churches as the feast of catholicity and universal solidarity so Christians the world over will recognize their common responsibility with regard to the evangelization of the world. Thank you for your prayers and financial support.

What’s in our heart’s loyalty? In today’s Gospel, the Pharisees attempt to trap Jesus by asking about the obligation of paying taxes to the emperor. They know that if Jesus says that taxes should be paid, he would show a loyalty to another authority over their religious authority. But Jesus does not answer as they expect.

“Give...to God the things that are God’s.” Jesus’ answer helps us reflect on loyalties in a new light. What are the things that are God’s? Our hearts are made to seek and to glorify God. Our lives are God’s! The path of faith is to discover what things we are giving priority to in our lives and to intentionally set God ahead of all of them. We put obstacles in our spiritual path whenever we set anything above seeking God in the heart of the Gospel and placing God first in our hearts.

So how do we clear away the obstacles from our path? We acknowledge that the “things that are God’s” are all things. We owe God our very hearts, first and foremost, uncluttered by other attachments. When something else comes first before God, we have placed ourselves as the first priority. Seeking to discover how our priorities are not first rooted in trust and gratitude for God helps to loosen their hold on us.
