

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

We hear today the simple narrative of Jesus calling his first disciples. Simon and Andrew, James and John are invited to follow him and “immediately” they leave their nets and their boats to join Jesus in his mission. How was it possible that these mature men, responsible to their work and families, heard an invitation from a stranger and walked away from their means of livelihood, from the familiar pattern of their lives, from the daily rhythm of the early morning pushing-off the boats in search of what the sea would yield up to them?

Perhaps they had already heard of Jesus, but Matthew gives us no indication of that. Rather, we are presented with the stark immediacy of their response, which points to a remarkable and spontaneous moment of commitment. They were ready. God’s grace, already at work in them, and their response to that grace, had prepared them for this moment.

The calling of these four men might seem a remarkable and unique event, but perhaps it is the same call that comes to us. Again and again Jesus says to each of us, “Follow me.” By God’s grace we too can respond with a complete gift of self, again and again giving our “yes” to his invitation to let ourselves be loved and to bring his love to others.

FR. PASTOR’S REFLECTION

When speaking about the beginnings of the Church, we point to the death and resurrection of Jesus, and the descent of the Holy Spirit. But the origin is always the word that Jesus speaks to people. Today’s Gospel shows us a very important element in the building of our Church. It’s a bold decision to follow Jesus. The teacher from Nazareth gathers and calls the first students. Whoever answers Jesus’ call with a change of life, enters into His mystery and begins to live off its content. The response of Simon and Andrew, James and John is a model and template for entering the fellowship of Jesus’ disciples and the communion of the holy Church.

The Sacrament of Baptism

will be bestowed upon

Lehvi Mauno Karpuc,
son of Jasmine & Dawid

Helena Barbara Olkowska
Liliana Bozena Olkowska,

Confession: before each Mass

Next Sunday, on February 2nd, the Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. In the Polish tradition it is better known as Matki Bożej Gromnicznej, because candles are blessed on this day. The Feast of the Presentation of the Lord is a reference to the Gospel description of the offering of Jesus in the temple. Forty days after His birth, Mary and Joseph took the child to the temple in Jerusalem to offer Him to God, in accordance with the Mosaic Law and in thanksgiving for saving the Israelites as the Angel of Destruction passed through Egypt. A righteous and devout old man named Simon recognized Jesus as the true Messiah. On this day candles are brought to the churches for blessing. They are a symbol of the humanity of the Son of God, as well as a symbol of faith, hope and love with which a Christian should follow Christ. The blessing of candles will take place during each Mass.
