Reflection

Who is Jesus that even someone outside his group of followers could cast out demons using his name? Today's Gospel from Mark helps us reflect, among other things, on Jesus' divinity. This is the same Jesus who changed water into wine (Jn 2.1-11); the very Jesus of whom the disciples witnessed: "even the winds and the sea obey him" (Mt 8.27).

In today's Gospel, Jesus also teaches about the seriousness of sin. Our bodies, with which we are called to glorify God, are sometimes used for evil. Jesus does not suggest that we literally cut off our limbs but uses hyperbole or exaggeration to convey that our love for God must be greater than our self-seeking. What aspect of my life needs to be "cut off" as it draws me away from God? What do I do with my hands, see with my eyes feed into my mind or speak with my tongue that leads me to sin? Jesus calls us to radically transform our being, to use our bodies for love of God.

In the Eucharist, Jesus lives what he teaches. He offers himself unreservedly for our transformation. When we hear, "This is my body, which will be given up for you" and partake in his most precious body and blood, may we be transformed to reflect in our own bodies the person of Christ we receive.

- Livestreaming of services and dispensation from physical participation in the Sunday Eucharist continues. The elderly, those with compromised immune systems or other health conditions should be encouraged to exercise extreme caution about any outings, including attendance at church.

- Funerals take place from Monday to Friday in the morning.

- Baptisms take place outside of Mass, on Saturday mornings.

- Meetings in parish halls or other indoor spaces are permitted in Step 3. Attendance may not exceed 50% of meeting space capacity. Participants must be masked and physically distanced. In addition, a sign-in sheet for meetings should be provided for the purposes of contact tracking. Meals and food services at meetings is discouraged at this time.

- Most up-to-date information is always communicated at the end of Mass. Please listen carefully.
