

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as solemnities – special days that call our attention to the central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity, one God in three Persons.

Reflection

I met Rose 40 years ago when I took a bus from Toronto to Cincinnati, Ohio to spend a long weekend visiting her daughter, Jennifer (my sweetheart, who became to woman I affectionately call “The Bride”).

Grandma Rose is the matriarch of her large American family. As a woman who gave birth to 14 children, she has experienced great joy and tremendous sorrow. Many years ago she suffered the unimaginable. Over a six-month period her youngest daughter was stillborn, she survived hepatitis from a blood transfusion, said goodbye to her beloved father – and then her cherished husband, Douglas, was taken by a sudden heart attack.

Such hardship would cause many to doubt their faith. Rose stayed close to God, the Father and Creator who abundantly blessed her with a rich, meaningful life. She loved and honoured Jesus, her Saviour, through participation in the Sacraments and her daily rosary. Rose also continued to seek the intercession of the Holy Spirit, the Advocate, who has guided and sustained her, inspiring her relentless service on behalf of young mothers and their unborn babies.

When saying goodbye to loved ones, Grandma Rose is known for her warm hug while she traces the cross on their shoulder or back. This sacred sign of the Trinity is her way of expressing abiding faith and enduring hope.

Sunday Mass Obligation

“Given that most of the health and safety restrictions in our parishes are no longer in place and the faithful are able to attend the celebration of the Eucharist once again, the basis for the dispensation from the Sunday obligation has dissipated and is no longer in effect.”

The Church does not obligate people to do the impossible. If individuals, based on their conscience, cannot attend Mass for a grave reason, including a great vulnerability to COVID-19 or because they are self-isolating to limit the spread of illness, then they are excused from their Sunday obligation, as the law of the Church allows.

After two years of COVID-19 restrictions, many have been deprived of the opportunity to attend Mass and to receive the most Holy Eucharist and all of us have missed the opportunity to experience community, including members of our parishes. We invite and encourage the faithful to return to the practice of attending Mass in-person.”

Archdiocese of Toronto*

Church Attire and Behaviour

The Mass is a stupendous miracle, and those who partake of the heavenly banquet are tremendously privileged. Polite decorum and appropriate dress are simply one way of acknowledging this privilege.

Therefore, please be mindful of your attire and behaviour in church: refrain from wearing immodest clothing, turn off your cell phone, do not eat or chew gum, and keep the church clean.

ShareLife

You can be a hero for those in need

The thousands of people who rely on ShareLife-funded agencies are counting on us to reach our parish goal, so the lifesaving work of these agencies can continue.

“Our goal can be met, but only with your help. I invite you to join today’s generation of heroes by making a sacrificial gift to ShareLife. As you contemplate the blessings God has entrusted to you, please join me in giving to ShareLife to the best of your ability.”

– Cardinal Thomas Collins

If you have not yet donated, you can do so using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org. Please give generously.
