

Summer is Here!

Summer is finally here, and this means time off for a well-deserved vacation/staycation! We wish all our parishioners a wonderful and safe holiday, good weather, sunny days, and lots of opportunities to see God in the beauty of creation. Please remember that there is no “time off” from God. Find time for daily personal prayer and make an effort to participate in Sunday Mass. Churches are open on Sundays.

Coffee and Donuts

This Sunday, July 17, coffee and donuts will be served by Domus Ecclesiae.

Reflection

Images of hospitality and ease in relationship with God are interwoven through today’s readings. Receptive, generous, and gracious in service to the Lord, Abraham models hospitality as a spiritual practice. In return, he receives an unexpected blessing. To the psalmist, those who “abide” in God are in word and act virtuous, loving, honest, affirming, just and respectful. Like Abraham, they model God whom they serve.

The story of Mary, Martha and Jesus in Luke’s Gospel is familiar to us – Mary, the receptive listener at Jesus’ feet and her sister, Martha, the practical hostess busy in the background. In fact, the sisters have been distinguished by tradition as models of different types of spiritual expression: Mary, contemplation and Martha, action.

We can identify with the encounter and see ourselves in them. Yet, in light of the other readings, we realize the central focus of their gathering is not simply entertainment but discipleship itself.

Disciples are called, says Paul, to make the word of God fully known, the word which is Christ in them. The only thing needed by Mary, Martha, and all disciples is immersion in Jesus’ person, an “at-homeness” in relationship with him that enables us to reflect his presence, his hospitality, his reverence for all. So, transformed, we can be his eyes, his hands, his heart every day.

Perpetual Adoration Chapel

Come spend an hour in prayer in the presence of the Holy Eucharist where Jesus Christ is truly present in His body, blood, soul, and divinity.
