

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection

Today's Gospel is about curiosity. Imagine the scene – Jesus was passing through town. And one of the people in the town was curious. Presumably Zacchaeus had a relatively successful life, as Luke describes him as rich. And yet he was seeking something more. In the same way, we may pray for more.

So how did he act on his curiosity? Did he allow his being short in stature (i.e., lacking something) to stop him from seeking something that he wanted? No, he climbed a tree, in the same way a child climbs a tree to explore more of the world.

And despite his faults – for Zacchaeus was a sinner – Jesus insisted he must stay at his house. The gift of Jesus simply coming to visit him at his house led to a profound self-understanding. In response to this gift, the rich man decided to give to the poor. Jesus announced his salvation, providing the man with another gift. This is significant, as is not salvation the ultimate gift which we are all looking to receive? The end for which we always pray to be granted to one another?

Let us go forth today, curious about the gifts that Jesus has for us. Perhaps his presence in our house is the answer to the prayer that is at the root of our curiosity.
