

“Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.” Mark 10.2-16

Reflection

I'm holding my sleeping granddaughter while contemplating the lines from today's Gospel: "Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." She hasn't learned to consciously listen for God's voice...

Jesus encourages this simplicity of heart as a prayer path. In abiding in God's grace, I glimpse the glory of heaven.

How can we recover this divine, child-like simplicity in our own prayer lives? Perhaps it is through silent contemplation of the beauty that surrounds us.
