

*"Come, follow me,
and I will make you
fishers of people."*

Matthew 4:12-23

Reflection

In the fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous there is a declaration that states the only way to keep your sobriety is by giving it away. This is echoed in the prayer attributed to St. Francis: "It is in giving that we receive." In today's Gospel we witness the instant impact of the apostles' encounter with Jesus. Something in their hearts recognized the voice of the living God, and they left their nets immediately. Our "yes" to the Master's call releases a similar grace that floods our souls and them flows outward.

This is our casting call into the communion of saints. Pope Benedict once said the saints are our constellations. With our "yes" we are empowered to forgive, love our enemies and do good to those who hate us, following the example of our Lord and the saints. Our decision to stay the course and be fed sacramentally sustains us in tandem with the saints and the power of the Holy Spirit who intercedes for us.

There is an old adage that states, "If you don't know where you are going, any road will take you there." We know where we are going; it is by following the voice of Jesus who calls us to holiness that we will reach our final destination. Thank God we know where this road takes us: it is to eternal life.
