

“You are the salt of the earth.
You are the light of the world.”

Matthew 5.13-16

Reflection

When I shared with my grandson the fact that the Creator of the whole universe had come to us in human form, he was in awe, as were the first Christians. It is, after all, a staggering thought, isn’t it? We should be hanging on every word God has spoken; but strangely, we’ve grown accustomed to them. Today’s liturgy reminds us that Jesus, the Word of God, is the Light of the world, a light that shines through the darkness of our frail ideologies. The deepening world crises are proof that we can’t get it right on our own. Collectively, we’ve tried everything except God’s way: the way of love, compassion and forgiveness.

So why did God say, in Isaiah, “your light shall rise in the darkness”? Why did Jesus say, “You are the light of the world?”

All wisdom is God’s wisdom. When we let it guide us, when we live by it, we begin to reflect his light the way the moon reflects sunlight: as a pale reflection. St. Paul said humbly: “My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.” May the power of God light up our lives!
